Dedication

This year the Zem Zem Staff takes great pride in dedicating this book to an important person behind the scenes. She is Miss Ethel Frost, its adviser. The effort and interest she has devoted, not only to the annual, but also in her classes as a teacher, is valued highly by all who have known her. In this way the staff hopes to express the appreciation of all for her service in this and in years gone by.

Foreword

A yearbook is a collection of memories. In future years it can be drawn upon to bring back to mind many pleasant thoughts.

With this year's Zem Zem goes the hope of the staff that its pictures, comments, and verses, will in time serve as such a reminder.

Seniors Visit

WASHINGTON TRIP

That long awaited day had finally arrived — March 21, 1951.

We were at Winton Place, waiting for the train and trying to keep warm, for the station-agent had told us that our train was twenty minutes late. Finally, it arrived, the conductor yelled "All Aboard," and we were off!

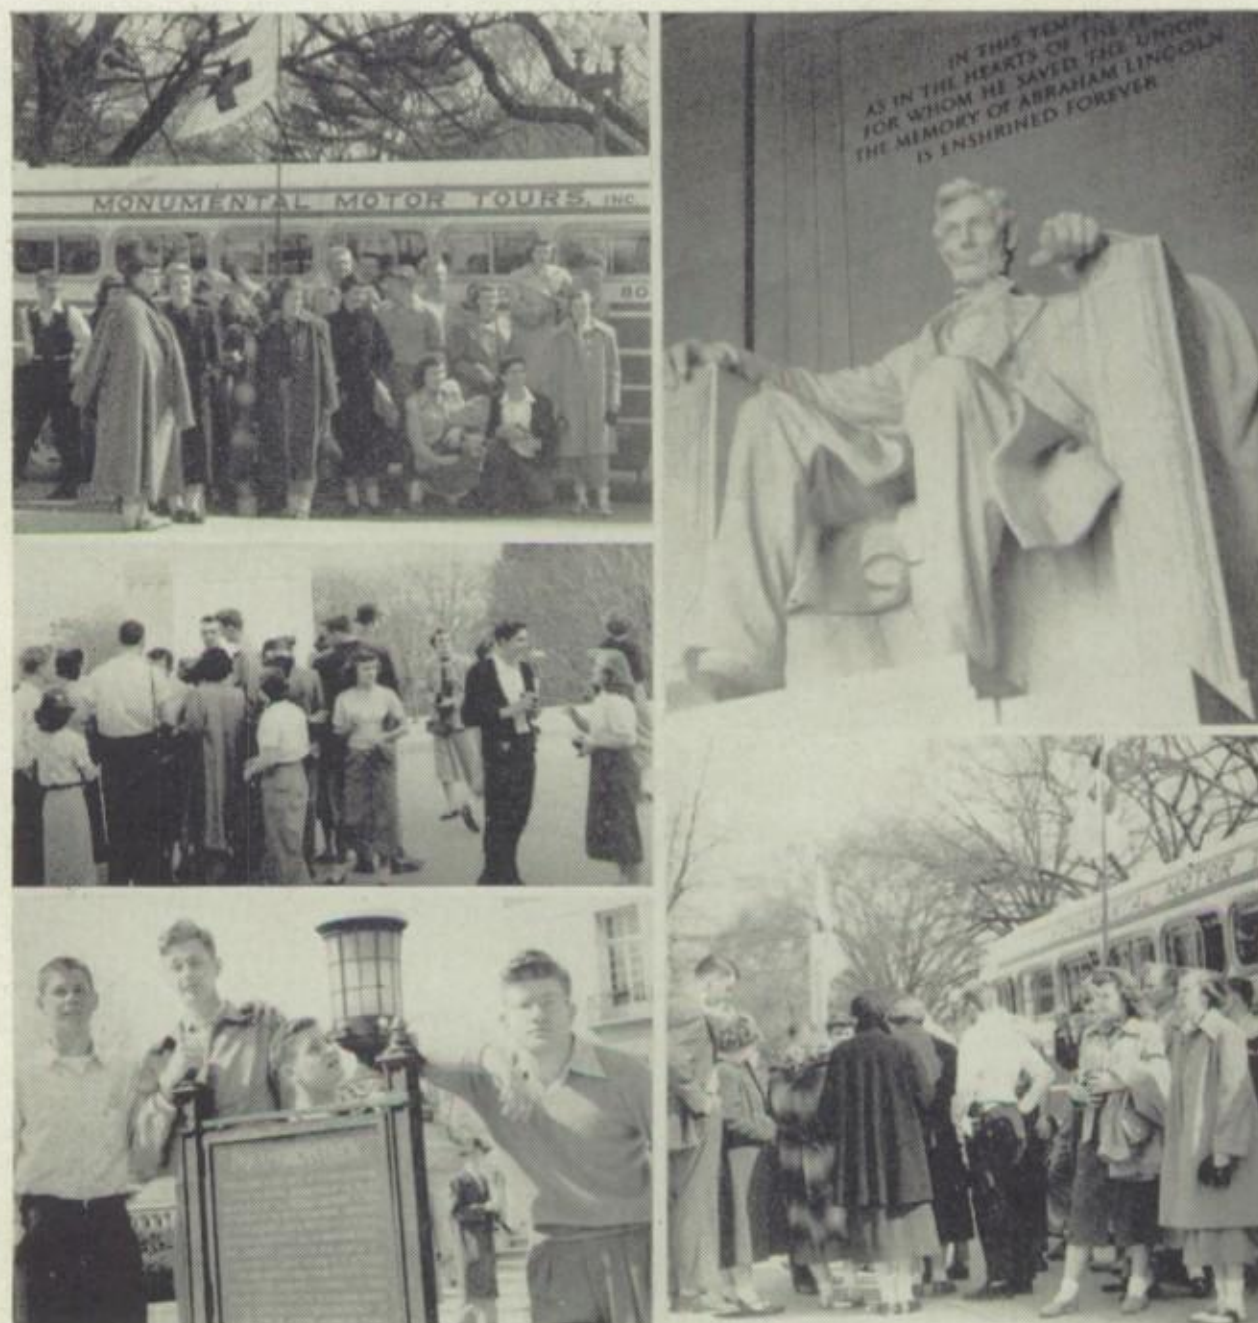

After we were settled, we discovered a club car next to our coach. After that, suffice it to say, most of us were in that club car from then until ???, either playing cards or singing songs and really having a swell time for ourselves.

Meanwhile, in our coach, the porter was passing out the pillows and some of our group were starting to turn in for the night. The next thing we knew it was morning and we were in Baltimore. A bus was chartered for the remainder of our trip to Washington.

Our bus driver was really a friend. We met him in Baltimore and he stayed with us for two days, that is, until Saturday. I am certain that everyone agrees that "Pete" really made our trip more interesting.

We started our tour at Fort McHenry. After that, we went to Annapolis which "naturally" thrilled most of the girls. We then travelled on to Washington to see the Capitol, Congressional Library, Senate, House, and many other places of historical importance.

This phrase is cliché but it sums up our trip perfectly—"A fine time was had by all."

Washington, D. C.

History of the Senior Class

The year 1947 marked the entrance of the class of '51 into high school. As we look back, we recall with delight the carefree days of our freshman year. In those days we were a class of 107 kids, all set to conquer high school and any obstacles the world might set in our way. There were 59 from Mt. Healthy; 20 from Monfort Heights; 13 from Finneytown; 9 from New Burlington; and 6 from Springdale. Yes, we were green, but we made friends and soon established a spirit of unity.

But before we knew it, the year had slipped by amid extra-curricular snowball fights and parties. Our class membership had dwindled to 95, and our responsibilities and activities had increased. Why! We even published our own class paper, "The Keyhole". None of us will ever forget the grand times we spent during our sophomore year.

Our junior year found us with 91 members in the class. Ah! That was the year! It was not enough keeping up with all our other school activities that we as juniors were expected to do. We also had the task of raising money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Getting down to business, we did just that. With a Mardi Gras theme, the Prom was held at the Norwood Masonic Temple. Who could ever forget that gay and delightful evening? A successful prom had been our goal and a successful prom it was! Receiving our class rings at the end of the year, we suddenly realized that our high school days were numbered.

Now at long last we were seniors! We were the big-wigs of the school. And what a senior year we had! Our spirit was embodied in our motto, "Work for the future, not the past". Our excellent taste was expressed in the navy blue and white of our class colors. So proud were we of our colors that we broke tradition and wore them at commencement. Our senior year was high-lighted by our class-play, Washington trip, and class picnic at Le Sourdsville Lake at the close of the school year. Baccalaureate Services were held on June 3 and on the evening of June 8 commencement exercises were held.

Then we were no longer seniors. We were 81 young men and women, ready to answer and conquer the world. Some of us were ready to answer the call to help preserve peace and freedom in order that those who follow in our footsteps may find a better world to live in.

In ten years, on the second Sunday in June, we plan to meet again at the portals of Mt. Healthy High School to renew memories and friendships of four most happy years.

ACTIVITIES

Band

The Mt. Healthy High School Band has had a very prosperous year. After the election of officers it began activities by backing up the football team on our home field. The Christmas Concert featured a composition with lyrics by Mr. Slade and music by Mr. Guinn.

In new uniforms, purchased by the Band Boosters, the band presented its Spring Concert. Finally May came and our band, along with the bands of Anderson, Mariemont, Wyoming, and Greenhills, took part in the annual Band Festival. After strutting its' stuff down the main street in the Memorial Day Parade, the band closed the year with its traditional picnic.

This year a much greater interest was taken in photography than formerly. One even had to make appointment for use of the dark-room.

Whatever the occasion, there was bound to be a flash of white light, for Camera Club members were "Johnny on the Spot" at all school events. They were working hand-in-hand with the Zem Zem staff, getting pictures for the annual. In fact, most of the pictures in this book were made possible by work of the club.

Together with the Junior Class, they sponsored a movie to help raise the $200.00 spent for photographic supplies. Members feel that this interest gives promise of even more and better pictures in the years ahead.

The arrival of J. C. L. pins made the members feel that the club was official, and everyone was proud to wear the emblem of the Junior Classical League, national organization with which the local club is affiliated.

The members engaged in several money-making activities in order to finance their projects. They made contributions of cash to the Community Chest and the Polio Fund. Continuing a tradition of former groups, they presented to the school a picture of a spot on Lake Wawasee in Indiana.

At the annual picnic the members honored the nine freshmen who had averages of 90 or more in Latin I.

This year's Spanish Club worked toward the purchase of a trophy case for the high school. In order to raise funds for this project, the club sponsored a bake-sale and a school movie. Early in the spring, members made the annual trip to the Spanish Inn, where they thoroughly enjoyed both the food and the "atmosphere." At mid-year new members were admitted. The Calender ended with the election of officers.

A bake sale started the ball rolling for G. A. A. early in the fall. The next activity was a dance with a wonderful floor show on October 21. Some time later they sponsored a movie. These were merely means of warming up for their chief project, the Honor Banquet, held June 1 to present scholastic and athletic awards to outstanding students in the various fields. A picnic after the last meeting brought the year to a satisfactory close.

Each year the G. A. A. presents a ring at commencement to the "Best All Around Girl". On June 8, 1951, that ring was presented to Nancy Meyer. Marilyn Hafer of the class of 1950 proudly wears the ring awarded last year.

The Glee Club began activities with an enrollment of 190 members. During the course of the year, the group sang for the Prince of Peace Contest, helped spread the Christmas spirit by singing carols uptown, and sang for two of the Union Lenten Services at the Christian Church.

Something new was done by this year's club, in that it entered the Ohio Music Educator's District Competitive Festival at Miami University. A II rating was given the group, an excellent beginning, and everyone will be looking forward to a rating of "I" next year!

To climax the club's activities, the operetta "Blow Me Down" was given on May 10 and 11 with wonderful results.

We feel this club has had a good year and wish them the best of luck in the future.

Mt. Healthy's Hi-Y, boy's Christian organization sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. has sailed through another successful year.

In February they crowned the year's events when their candidate, Eileen Van Fleet, was crowned Basketball Queen.

The boys got into the newspaper field when they collaborated with the L.G.D. in publishing several editions of "Healthy Highlights".

The group maintained an interesting program for members. This included weekly bowling sessions and meetings which featured discussions, movies, and speakers from various fields of interest.

Not to be forgotten were the Hayride and well-known initiation.

The Home Economics Club spent a profitable year. They sold school supplies and also book covers on which they had printed the school emblem.

At Christmas time they gave a party for the children at the Emanuel Center. At Easter they prepared baskets and once again delighted the children at the Emanuel Center.

The club finished their very successful year with the traditional picnic at Sharon Woods.

The L. G. D. swung into action for the current year with a hay-ride to Handle-Bar Ranch. Somewhat later members enjoyed the musical comedy "Kiss Me Kate". The slumber-party at Nancy Meyer's home was another capital-letter event.

Then who could forget the Alumnae Christmas Party at the home of last year's president, Joy Smith?

Social activities came to a close with the traditional Progressive Supper and slumber party welcoming new members.

All was not frivolous, for between times members succeeded in accumulating funds to purchase ninety dollars' worth of books for the school library.

The Lit-Lite Club, open only to Sophomore English students, was formed this year. Although it is the youngest club in the school, it has had an active schedule. Among other things was the "Christmas Grab Bag Sale" complete with Santa Claus. Throughout the year, the club has rented various movies concerning English Literature to be shown to the class.

We are all looking forward to the High School Handbook of Information about Mt. Healthy that will be completed next year.

Y-Teens is an organization for girls, affiliated with the Y. W. C. A. Any girl in school is eligible for membership.

At M. H. H. S. the Y-Teens are very active. The year's events began with a beautifully impressive Recognition Service, honoring all new members. A delicious banquet for new members followed this service.

Throughout the year the very interesting programs centered about "Prejudice", a timely subject. One especially interesting meeting brought Miss Etta Price, former head of the detective department of a Cincinnati store, to speak.

The year will come to a close with the Mother-Daughter Tea and later, the annual picnic. But plans are already afoot to start again next September.

For the past twenty-two years, Mt. Healthy's various school organizations and their members have annually been recorded in the Zem-Zem. This year's Zem-Zem staff faced the problems of the production of an annual equal to or better than those of other years. An important part of their policy was to include as large a number of pictures as possible. Financing the cost of the Zem-Zem was largely handled through paper drives and tax stamp collections. At the end of the year the staff held a dinner to celebrate the completion of a very interesting year.

This year's baseball team had one of the best seasons in history. It marked the first time that a Mt. Healthy team became District Champs in Class A Play. During the regular season, Mt. Healthy won 8 and lost 4. Led by the brilliant pitching of Tom Schunk, the "head-first" sliding of Pat Chambers, and timely hitting in general, the Owls tied the first game of the tournament, and went on to win four more before being halted. Teamwork and a fighting spirit were behind the success of the team. They came from behind in almost every game. They staged their greatest comebacks in the tournament when twice they scored seven runs in one inning. Players and coach were thrilled to play the last two games of the tournament at Crosley Field.

The Owls, although taking no championships, provided plenty of thrills and excitement for the fans. They closed the season with a respectable 5 won, 5 lost record.

Coached by "Ollie" Freese and "Les" Heizman, they showed definite improvement in general play. With many of the regulars expected to return next year, we may anticipate plenty of grid-iron action.

In a very successful season, the basketball team, under the leadership of Coach Freese, won fourteen games. Some of the highlights of the season were the wins over Withrow and Central Vocational. In the latter game two scoring marks were set: one by the team, which scored 81 points and the other by Glenn Randall, who made 35 points. The team played race-horse basketball which caught the fancy of quite a few fans this year in this area.

The girls tied with Colerain to open the second basketball season for Mt. Healthy. Games were played with Greenhills, Wyoming, and North College Hill. These resulted in three wins, two losses, and one tie for Mt. Healthy.

Basketball Queen

This year marks the ninth annual election of a Basketball Queen at Mt. Healthy High.

For a hectic week there had been busy campaigning by the clubs for their choice.

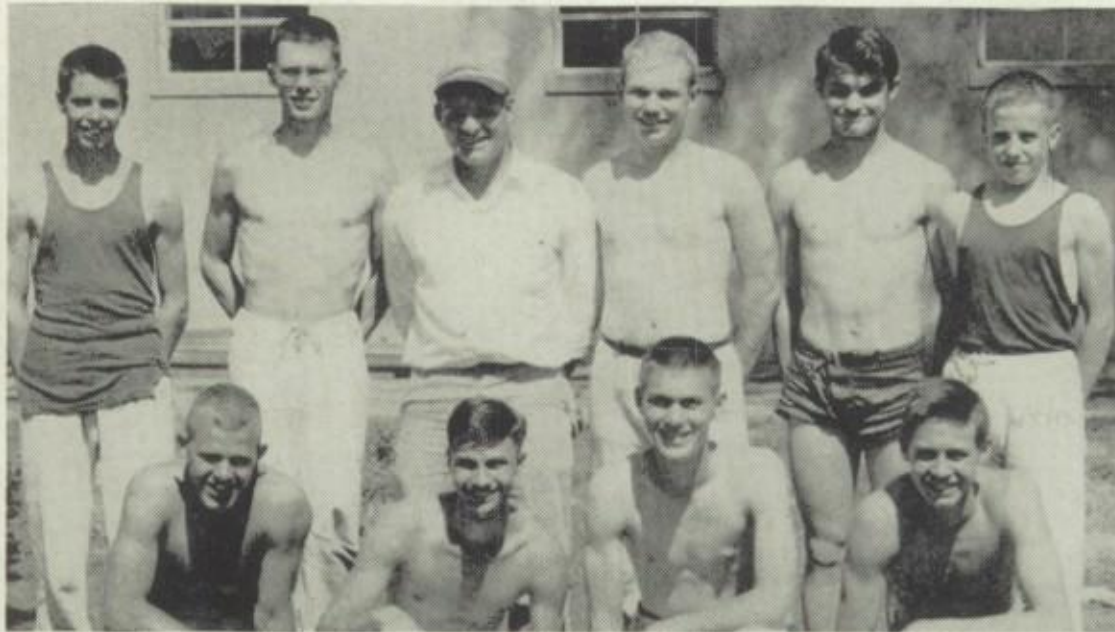

At the North College Hill game the candidates made their entrance to the music of the band playing "A Pretty Girl." Then the big event—the crowning. In came the Queen, Eileen Van Fleet, on the arm of the Basketball Captain, Tom Smith. He escorted her to the center of the floor and presented her with the traditional kiss and bouquet of roses.

Thus a new queen ascended the throne to reign triumphantly over her realms of Red and Black.

MY CREED

*To live as gently as I can;
To be, no matter where, a man;
To take what comes of good or ill
And cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best, and let that stand
The record of my brain and hand;
And then, should failure come to me,
Still work and hope for victory.*

*To have no secret place wherein
I stoop unseen to shame or sin;
To be the same when I'm alone
As when my every deed is known;
To live undaunted, unafraid
Of any step that I have made;
To be without pretense or sham
Exactly what men think I am.*

*To leave some simple mark behind
To keep my having lived in mind;
If enmity to aught I show,
To be an honest, generous foe,
To play my little part, nor whine
That greater honors are not mine.
This, I believe, is all I need
For my philosophy and creed.*

Music

Servant and master am I; Servant of those dead, and master of those living. Through me spirits immortal speak the message that makes the world weep, and laugh, and wonder and worship.

I tell the story of Love, the story of hate, the story that saves and the story that damns. I am the incense upon which prayers float to Heaven. I am the smoke which palls over the field of battle where men lie dying with me on their lips.

I am close to the marriage altar, and when the graves open, I stand near by. I call the wanderer home, I rescue from the depths, I open the lips of lovers, and through me the dead whisper to the living.

One I serve as I serve all; and the king I make my slave as easily as I subject his slave. I speak through the birds of the air, the insects of the field, the crash of waters on rock-ribbed shores, the sighing of the wind in the trees, and I am even heard by the soul that knows me in the clatter of the wheels on city streets.

I know no brother, yet all men are my brothers; I am father of the best that is in them, and they are fathers of the best that is in me; I am of them, and they are of me. For I am the instrument of God —

I AM MUSIC

Christmas Prom King and Queen

The magic night had finally arrived—Dec. 16, date of the Y-Teens' Christmas Prom which would bring the crowning of a king and queen.

Everyone arrived eager to witness the crowning. Each senior Hi-Y member was eligible for the title of king and each senior Y-Teen was eligible to become queen. All the candidates lined up, were introduced, and then returned to their places. Following this a large box labeled "The Thing" was wheeled out on the gym floor. The box was opened and out stepped the queen, Nancy Meyer, president of Y-Teens. Earl Weber, who is Hi-Y president, was king. The king escorted his queen to a decorated sleigh, presented her with a bouquet of roses, and gave her the traditional kiss. Following this, candidates and friends congratulated the king and queen, and a new reign had been launched.

PRINCE OF PEACE CONTEST

Sylvia Seigle brought honor to M.H.H.S. by placing third in the annual Ohio Prince of Peace Declamation Contest at Columbus, where she was competing with the seven other district winners. She had won the District competition at Chillicothe; the County, at Lockland; and the Local, at Mt. Healthy.

PROPHECY

The year is 1965. The time for the long-awaited reunion of the class of '51 of Mt. Healthy High is at hand. BOB EMMONS, literary critic of Woman's Home Companion has dispatched invitations to all members of the class to assemble in the famous Engelbilt Hotel, Cincinnati. It seems the most suitable gathering place since BILL ENGEL is proprietor. We have come early to watch others arrive and are enjoying the strictly modern aspect of the lobby with its furniture designed by NANCY SPINDLER. We also have fun watching NANCY STEGMULLER, that well-known interior decorator, put finishing touches here and there about the room. In contrast with the modernistic furnishings the general decor is accentuated by strange antiques from the Stone Age, unearthed by ANNIE MARIE SEIDER. In several niches about the wall are wax figures from the SYLVIA SEIGLE Museum. Meanwhile ROBERT CORMACK, President of Cincinnati Union Stock-Yards, is seen across the street entering the DARGUE and FREY Reducing Salon. We notice that Bob bows deeply to a distinguished gentleman emerging from the salon. Distinguished gentleman! My eye! That's WARREN WIRTH, known as the Great Humanitarian.

Isn't that JACK HOGUE, the famous maker of Swiss watches? Now all we can see is hat. Why, naturally! It's ALICE REIF beneath one of her creations. Here comes ANNA MAE NIEHAUS, the Jane in the new Tarzan series, escorted by WALTER MARQUA, Rudolph Vaseline of 1963. An announcement is heard to the effect that ELEANOR KIMBLE, who operates a Nursery School, will treat all children under ten years of age in Susie's Sweet Shop, the confectionery of SUE HENKE. That must be TOM SMITH, writer of Tales of the Wooley West, with RICHARD MESSICK, author of a treatise on fine arts. Just approaching are SALLY SAMSON, stockholder in a

Success Story — American Style

Just seventy-five years ago the first spoken message was carried over a few feet of wire, connecting two crude telephones. In the United States today, 173 million conversations daily speed over 152 million miles of wire connecting 43 million telephones.

First regarded as a mere toy, the telephone in the U. S. today is an 11 billion dollar business, owned by almost a million stockholders and provides jobs for three-quarters of a million persons.

The industry is big because America is big and requires a huge communications system to keep the wheels of commerce, and society generally, running smoothly and swiftly—yet its cost is low, within the reach of most families.

This is just a typical American success story, possible only under our system of free enterprise which permits free men and women to exercise individual initiative.

CYNTHIA REARDON is sending in students from her School for Soda Jerks with refreshments concocted by DOROTHY TEKULVE, her vanilla expert. These are most welcome, as the air-conditioning system has failed. The management promises rapid repairs, for they have summoned service from the HEBELER-LISTERMANN shop. As the guests settle again, we see JOAN GIERACH, proprietor of Jo's Tonsorial Parlor and MARCELLA MERKEL, her head manicurist. Close behind is JOAN LAWLER, riding her tricycle with a basket labelled Western Union. My! What
